

§ 10.312 Assignment of claim, claims of creditors.

An assignment of a claim for compensation is void. Compensation and claims for compensation are exempt from claims of creditors.

§ 10.313 Dual benefits.

(a) Except as otherwise provided by law, a person may not concurrently receive compensation pursuant to the Act and a retirement or survivor annuity under the U.S. Civil Service Retirement Act, the Federal Employees' Retirement System Act, or a retirement or survivor annuity which stands in lieu of either of these Acts, such as Foreign Service or Central Intelligence Agency disability and retirement programs. Such beneficiary shall elect the benefit which he or she wishes to receive, and such election, once made, is revocable.

(b) Military retirement/retainer pay and compensation. An employee may receive compensation concurrently with military retired pay, retirement pay, retainer pay or equivalent pay for service in the Armed Forces or other uniformed services, subject to the reduction of such pay in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 5532(b).

(c) The Office may require an employee to submit an affidavit or statement as to the receipt of any federally funded or federally assisted benefits, as identified and in the manner and at the times specified by the Office, in order to determine the employee's entitlement to compensation or to determine whether the employee is receiving benefits under other programs administered by the Office. If an employee when required, fails within 30 days of the date of the request to submit such affidavit or statement, the employee's right to compensation otherwise payable shall be suspended until such time as the requested affidavit or report is received, at which time compensation will be reinstated retroactive to the date of suspension provided the employee is entitled to such compensation.

§ 10.314 Cost-of-living adjustments.

(a) Cost-of-living adjustments shall be made from time to time in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 8146a.

(b) Compensation payable on account of disability or death which occurred more than one year before the effective date of the cost-of-living adjustment shall be increased as determined in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 8146a. In disability cases, a beneficiary is eligible for cost-of-living adjustments where injury-related disability began more than one year prior to the effective date of the adjustment without regard to the fact that for any part of that period of disability the beneficiary may have elected to receive continuation of pay as provided by 5 U.S.C. 8118, or to use sick or annual leave. Where an injury does not result in disability but compensation is payable pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 8107 for permanent impairment of a covered member or function of the body, entitlement to cost-of-living adjustments begins with the first such adjustment occurring more than one year after the effective date of the award for such impairment. In the case of a recurrence of disability where the pay rate for compensation purposes is the pay rate at the time disability recurs, entitlement to cost-of-living adjustments begins with the first such adjustment occurring more than one year after the disability recurs. In death cases, entitlement to cost-of-living adjustments begins with the first such adjustment occurring more than one year after the date of death. However, if the death was preceded by a period of injury-related disability, compensation payable to the survivors will be increased by the same percentages as the cost-of-living adjustments paid or payable to the deceased employee for the period of disability, as well as by subsequent cost-of-living adjustments to which the survivors would otherwise be entitled.
